

PENNSYLVANIA'S STATE SYSTEM of HIGHER EDUCATION

Spring 2025 Courses Available For Sharing Across All PASSHE Universities 12.11.2024

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Commonwealth University	Elementary French II	FREN 102.99			Asynchronous	Develops communicative language proficiency at the Novice-High and Intermediate-Low sublevels (according to ACTFL proficiency scale) as well as develops the ability to understand and appreciate French-speaking cultures. A communicative method is applied to develop the four language skills (reading, writing, speaking, and listening) in an intercultural content. This includes the use of authentic audio-visual materials introducing the French-speaking world, situational communicative practice in listening, speaking, reading and writing, and laboratory activities.	12 seats available
Commonwealth University	Elementary Italian II	ITAL 102.99	M W F	10:00am	Synchronous	Develops communicative language proficiency at the Novice-High and Intermediate-Low sublevels (according to ACTFL proficiency scale) as well as develops the ability to understand and appreciate Italian-speaking cultures. A communicative method is applied to develop the four language skills (speaking, listening, reading, writing) in an intercultural content. This includes the use of authentic audio-visual materials introducing the Italian-speaking world, situational communicative practice in listening, speaking, reading and writing, and laboratory activities.	12 seats available
Commonwealth University	Span Am History Cult Civ	SPAN 211.99			Asynchronous	Presents the history, culture and civilization of Spanish-speaking nations from its beginnings to the present, with emphasis on art, literature, ideas, historical events, and cultural exchanges. Students gain insights in the cultural history of Hispanic countries, including geography, society, politics, philosophy, art, literature, and the sciences. This course is taught in English.	12 seats available
Commonwealth University	Spanish Lit & Film	SPAN 212.99			Asynchronous	Explores the role of literature, cinema, print and electronic media in shaping society in Spain and Spanish-speaking countries. Students learn how to analyze literary and visual texts using appropriate techniques and methods. Students examine the relationship between literature, film, media, culture, and politics. Special attention is paid to contemporary literary works, cinema, media, and the Internet. This course is taught in English.	12 seats available

Commonwealth University - Fall 2024 Course Catalog
University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Commonwealth University	Latinx Contribut US	SPAN 213.99			Asynchronous	Provides focused examination of the Latinx community cultural and historical contributions to the United States from colonial times to the present, with emphasis on community, art, literature, ideas, music, historical events, sciences, philosophy, and cultural exchanges. Students gain insights in the Latinx cultural and historical contributions to American society. This course is taught in English.	12 seats available
Commonwealth University	Anthropology Theory	ANTH 305.99			Asynchronous	Surveys the leading methods and theories of anthropological and ethnological interpretation. Emphasizes the concept of culture and its practical application to modern problems.	15 seats available
Commonwealth University	Research Methods	ANTH 475.99			Asynchronous	Provides class discussion and field experience in participant observation. Experience in interviewing, surveying, kinship charting, mapping, studying complex organizations and writing ethnographic field reports.	15 seats available
Commonwealth University	Public Relations Tactics	MEDJ 350.99			Asynchronous	Introduces the creation of research-based, strategically driven public relations tactics used in various contemporary public relations efforts. Students will prepare written, spoken, visual, digital, and special event tactics to address communication strategic objectives in the areas of building awareness, creating a brand image, and achieving measurable results. Students work with real-world accounts.	15 seats available
Commonwealth University	Audio Storytelling	MEDJ 372.99			Asynchronous	Explores the art of crafting audio narratives for a variety of digital media outlets. Students will produce a variety of audio productions such as soundscapes, commercials, and fiction narratives using voice, sound effects, and professionally mixed music.	15 seats available
Commonwealth University	Sociology of Work	SOCI 332.99			Asynchronous	Provides a critical introduction to work and occupations in American society. Course uses theory, empirical data, and research findings to explore how work is shaped by the structure of society. Students engage in fundamental sociological analysis of work and its history, organization, culture, inequalities, diversity, on-the-job characteristics, connections to power, and intersection with other spheres of social life.	15 seats available

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Commonwealth University	Assessment CSE	CSA523.99	T	5:00-8:00 PM	Synchronous	Provides a comprehensive examination of the experiences of post-secondary students including the nature and characteristics of the population, the effects and outcomes of college, the roles and responsibilities of student affairs practitioners in measuring programmatic outcomes, and step-by-step procedures for assessing student learning.	10 seats available
Commonwealth University	Field Experience	CSA599.99	M	6:00-7:30 PM	Synchronous	Exposes students to a comprehensive, pre-professional experience spanning two academic semesters for advanced graduate students in the College Student Affairs specialty within the Educational Leadership – College Student Affairs program. Students must complete 150 hours (per term) of supervised professional-level work in a college student affairs department. Periodic seminars, either online or in person, will be conducted to complement the practical experience.	5 seats available
Commonwealth University	Content Lit Gr 4-12	MSED420.01	TR	9:30-10:45 AM	Synchronous	Identifies the processes that contribute to literacy development, with specific focus on the range of learners from young adolescence through early adulthood. Teacher candidates will effectively utilize best practices to design instructional plans and effectively choose and create materials that are effective for supporting literacy and comprehension in the content areas.	11 seats available
Commonwealth University	Assess & Supp ELS	ELL325.99			Asynchronous	Provides students the knowledge and skills necessary to design and implement assessment and support services for ELLs and their families.	7 seats available
Commonwealth University	Assess & Supp ELS	ELL525.99			Asynchronous	Provides students the knowledge and skills necessary to design and implement assessment and support services for ELLs and their families.	8 seats available

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Commonwealth University	Basic Lang and Comm	ELL315.99	TR	9:30-10:45 AM	Synchronous	Introduces students to the components and sound system of the English language including phonology, syntax, morphology, semantics, and pragmatics. Presents the methods, theories, and processes of first and second language acquisition as well as common language disorders.	11 seats available
Commonwealth University	Org and Admin Reading	READ550.99			Asynchronous	Explores the role of literature in improving students' reading, writing, and language growth in grades K-12. Focuses on the role of multicultural literature in prompting cross-cultural understandings in a student-centered language arts program. Specific topics include selecting quality literature, developing literature-based multicultural thematic units, implementing diverse literature, second language acquisition, developing and implementing strategies to advocate for equity literacy, and recognizing the influence of culture on literacy teaching and learning.	7 seats available
Cheyney University	Arts of Western Africa	Art 33313			Asynchronous	This course is a continuation of principles and concepts begun in Fundamentals of Drawing I with additional problems in human figure, abstract, and non-representational drawing. Pre-Requisite: None Previous Course ID: HAR221	10 seats available
Cheyney University	Creative Writing	ENGL4421			Asynchronous	This course explores creative writing as a field and emphasized the study of creative writing devices. Students apply these devices to their own original creative work. Prerequisite: HEN 113 with a minimum grade of "C".	10 seats available
Cheyney University	African American Literature II	ENGL4332			Asynchronous	(African-American Heritage Intensive Course & Writing Intensive Course), The works of African American authors since 1940 will be covered. The relatively newer genre of drama, the novel, and the essay will be analyzed. Such contemporary writers as Baldwin, Hughes, Hurston, Walker, Morrison and others will be explored. A research paper is required. Pre-Requisite : HEN113	10 seats available
Cheyney University	Travel and Tourism	HRTM 2223			Asynchronous	Explains travel agency operation drawing upon a wide range of basic disciplines to provide the fundamental knowledge and skills that are required to fulfill the demands placed upon those in management positions in the hospitality industry; includes basic ticketing, history of travel airlines, steamships, cruises, rail and bus transportation, world travel areas, codes and industry travel terms. Prerequisite: HRM 111	10 seats available

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	IT Management and Innovation	MBA 548.02			Asynchronous	This course examines frameworks, concepts, practices, and examples that help business managers understand the value of IT and generate business value from investments in IT and its complimentary business resources. Topics include strategic alignment of IT with organizational goals, organizational efficiency and transformation enabled by IT, organizational learning and innovation enabled by IT, positioning and managing of the IT function, IT and sustainability. Uses lecture, projects, case studies. This course also examines from business perspective systems and technologies that help companies innovate and deliver business value such as business analytics, cloud computing, enterprise resource planning, customer relationship management, and supply chain systems.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Managerial Account	MBA 502.1			Asynchronous	Develops an understanding of the quantitative use of accounting data for decision-making within the firm. The focus is on developing an understanding of and appropriate use of cost in managerial decision making. Although the appropriate use of cost in this course refers primarily to short-term decisions, the strategic implications of cost analysis are also addressed.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Managerial Account	MBA 502.2	Mondays	1830-2045	Synchronous	Develops an understanding of the quantitative use of accounting data for decision-making within the firm. The focus is on developing an understanding of and appropriate use of cost in managerial decision making. Although the appropriate use of cost in this course refers primarily to short-term decisions, the strategic implications of cost analysis are also addressed.	5 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Controllership	ACCT 512.01			Asynchronous	Evaluates the business environment related to the controller level of managing the firm. Selected topics include: Working capital policy and management, Long-term capital financing, Enterprise continuity related to risk management; Planning and budgeting; Business performance; Cost behavior and cost-volume-profit modeling; Project management and implementation; Human resource management for the accounting department; Customer relationship management from the credit and collection perspective; Corporate social responsibility; Ethics. Pre-reqs ACC 201 or ACC 312 or MBA 502	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	Global Supply Chain Management	MBA 575.01			Asynchronous	This class starts by exploring the strategic nature of the global supply chain. The class will illustrate the impact of globalization on the business decisions for demand fulfillment, e.g. procurement, location, and distribution. Investigates how global supply chains utilize global markets for both supply and demand. Shows how enhanced information systems can lead to decreased costs and more efficient outcomes. Explains how global supply chain partners can be evaluated. Deliberates efficient organizational structures for fulfilling global demand. Shows global risk and provides risk management tools to mitigate. In addition to being exposed to the theory, case studies will be used to further reinforce the material's application in practice.	10 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Supply Chain Management	MBA 577.01			Asynchronous	Introduces an integrated enterprise approach of flow of goods and services from suppliers to customers (supplier relationship, procurement, operations management, inventory control, logistics and transportation, distribution and customer service). Every topic in each area is being discussed in the context of integrated flow of goods and services from suppliers to customers and continuous flow of information from the customers to the suppliers. Covers the issues facing managers of import-export firms, trading companies, international service companies, and multinational corporations.	3 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Supply Chain Management	MBA 577.02			Asynchronous	Introduces an integrated enterprise approach of flow of goods and services from suppliers to customers (supplier relationship, procurement, operations management, inventory control, logistics and transportation, distribution and customer service). Every topic in each area is being discussed in the context of integrated flow of goods and services from suppliers to customers and continuous flow of information from the customers to the suppliers. Covers the issues facing managers of import-export firms, trading companies, international service companies, and multinational corporations.	3 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Contemporary Decision Making	MBA 565.01			Asynchronous	Provides skills and tools necessary for managers to gain insight and better understand business problems to support the decision making process. Quantitative and qualitative tools and methods will be studied. The approach to course material will be an emphasis on application of the tools to making more-informed business decisions.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	Corporate Financial Management	MBA 529.02			Asynchronous	Explores financial theories, their application, and financial decision models necessary to handle corporate financial problems to maximize the firm value. This course emphasizes the important role of financial management in the corporate business environment.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Strategic Management	MBA 593.03	Wednesday	1830-2045	Synchronous	Examines strategic analysis and decision-making under conditions of dynamic uncertainty, with a focus on cross-functional integration and the management of processes and change. The importance of achieving a fit between the internal and external environment for organizational survival and success is a central issue.	5 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Marketing Management	MBA 570.01			Asynchronous	Detailed study of concepts and procedural alternatives in: the delineation of the market target, the development and implementation of the marketing mix, and the control and analysis of the total marketing effort. A survey of the marketing mix (product, place, price, and promotion) with emphasis on the strategic fit of these items to the overall execution of providing customers the greatest value proposition possible. Extensive use of cases and analysis will be employed.	3 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Essentials of Organizational Behavior	BUSN 531.01			Asynchronous	Organizational behavior examines human behavior in organizations and considers the practical skills managers need to motivate peers and subordinates, make decisions, deal with conflict, and succeed in a team-based environment. This course is part of the graduate business certificate and does not count toward the MBA degree.	5 seats available; Starts Jan 21 and ends Feb. 28; 2 CREDITS
Shippensburg University	International Business	MBA 554.03	Tuesday	1830-2045	Synchronous	Presents broad view of issues facing professionals in the international business area. Topics are broad and include international trade, exchange rates, finance, organizational structure, and international legal dimensions. Student learns to weave the social, technical, cultural, risk and human relations factors into a global context.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Organizational Leadership	MBA 556.01			Asynchronous	Examines the leadership and influence issues managers face. Attention is given to leading up, down, and across the organization, recognizing leadership is not limited to managers. Through guest business speakers, cases, readings, projects, and simulations, students gain greater insight and skill in leading. Topics include characteristics of effective leaders, power and influence strategies, crisis management, organizational politics, and leadership assessment.	3 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	Global Strategic Communication	COMM 548.01	Tuesday	1830-1930	Synchronous	The world is shrinking. Globalization, the growth of the Internet, new advances in communication technology and the explosion of social media have increasingly made journalism and public relations international endeavors. This course is designed to help students prepare for careers in international strategic communication by teaching a range of information gathering, communicating and reporting skills - offering the opportunity to practice the crafts of journalism and public relations internationally or for an international audience.	4 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Organizational Theory and Behavior	POLI 501.01			Asynchronous	Examines organization theory relevant to the administration and leadership in complex organizations. Focus is on topics of bureaucracy and development of administrative thought; human behavior in organizations including individual motivation, group and interpersonal dynamics, and leadership modes; organization structure, process, and dynamics; organizational development and change; and emerging perspectives in the field.	9 seats available; Starts Jan 13 and ends March 7
Shippensburg University	Public Policy Analysis and Program Evaluation	POLI 603.01			Asynchronous	Examines the policy making and policy implementation processes as they relate to the analysis of public policies. Major focus is upon results-oriented management techniques, and a number of specific quantitative policy analysis techniques. This includes program evaluation and cost benefit analysis.	9 seats available; Starts Jan 13 and ends March 7
Shippensburg University	The American Higher Education System in Comparative Perspective	SOCI 530.1			Asynchronous	Examines the different social structures, organizations, and communities that make up higher education in the U.S. today. Emphasis is placed upon the history and recent development of higher education models. Examines how the bureaucratic and institutional structures handle many of the issues, including the role of the "liberal arts," governance, distance education, the financing of higher education, the emergent emphasis on professional/vocational programs, institutional and systemic inequalities, growth of higher education administrative staffs, increasing role of for-profit institutions, the marketing of higher education, and the various "crises" identified by commentators and critics.	5 seats available; Starts Jan 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Procurement Management	SCMG 515.1			Asynchronous	This course is designed to give students a foundation in the theory and practice of purchasing and sourcing. Presented in the course are concepts, procedures, and issues related to negotiations, sourcing, pricing, procurement, cost management and global supply management. Strategies and challenges facing purchasing and sourcing in a global environment to maintain competitive advantages are considered.	6 seats available; Starts Jan 21 and ends March 14

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	Mental Illness and the Administration of Justice	CRJU 575.1			Asynchronous	Explores mental illness and the intersection of the mental health and criminal justice systems in the United States, particularly as a result of the deinstitutionalization movement which has resulted in the shifting of individuals with mental illness from hospitals into community-based correctional facilities and programs.	8 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Advanced Research Methods	CRJU 600.1			Asynchronous	Studies contemporary empirical research methods and their application in the field of criminal justice, including research design, research ethics, and theories of sampling, construction of data files, data collection strategies, and analysis of findings. The goal of this course is to provide students with the foundational knowledge of research methods and technologies, to become more informed consumers of academic research, adept at quantitative reasoning, and better equipped to implement and evaluate evidence-based practices.	12 seats available; Starts Jan. 21 and ends March 14
Shippensburg University	Research in Special Education	SPEE 600.1	Wednesday	1830-2115	Synchronous	Research in Special Education examines methods used in conducting research with students with disabilities. Emphasis is placed on understanding and interpreting data to improve instructional interventions. Methods examined may include quantitative, qualitative, and single-subject methodology.	2 seats available
Shippensburg University	Curriculum Assessment and Instructional PK-12 for Diverse Student Populations	EDLD 516.1	Wednesday	1730-2000	Synchronous	Focuses on curriculum development, implementation, and assessment (through instructional practice in U.S. public schools). Designed for both future school leaders and central office administrators, students will study curriculum from the foundation of three bases: (1) social forces, (2) theories of human development, and (3) the nature of learning and learning styles. Bases will assist students in defining curriculum by helping them understand key issues from both an historical perspective and current thinking. Useful for individuals aspiring to be (or already serving as) principals, supervisors, counseling personnel, subject area specialists, and superintendents. Emphasis placed on approaches to developing, evaluating, and articulating curricular changes drawn from a wide variety of subject areas. As a result students will be knowledgeable of the fundamentals of curriculum; the connection between curriculum, instruction, and assessment; current curricular issues; innovative approaches to curricula; planning curricular strategies; and analyzing current curricula.	2 seats available
Shippensburg University	Applied Organizational and Leadership Analysis	SOCI 570.01			Asynchronous	Part of capstone experience that will prepare students to conduct an organizational and leadership analysis during their concurrent internship experience. Students will develop a design for their analysis, present and discuss their designs with other students, meet during their internship to discuss their progress, and present their conclusions. Prerequisite(s): SOCI 550 and SOCI 560 and POLI 501 and POLI 601	12 seats available

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	Responsive Teaching and Learning	TEED 501.01			Asynchronous	This course examines instructional theories and strategies that are utilized in various curricular content areas, and how these strategies optimize PK-12 students' learning outcomes. The learner will investigate pedagogical practices that construct and monitor PK-12 students across a scope and sequence curricular framework. The learner will reflect upon diversity, access, equity, and inclusive practices that influence teaching and learning and build upon students' academic persistence and success.	14 seats available
Shippensburg University	Literacy and Linguistically Diverse Cultures and Communities	ESL 520.01			Asynchronous	This course focuses on developing understanding of culture and its impact on literacy with linguistically diverse populations. Multicultural literature, community literacies, and strategies to promote growth in literacy are discussed. Prerequisite(s): ESL 450 with minimum grade of B and ESL 510 with minimum grade of B	8 seats available
Shippensburg University	Literacy and the Secondary Student	READ 520.01			Asynchronous	This course is designed to navigate the trajectory of literacy development for upper-level students who continue to struggle with reading and writing beyond elementary school. As part of the course curriculum, graduate candidates will prepare secondary literacy intervention lessons for learners striving for proficiency based on the most up-to-date science of reading principles and the structured literacy framework. Students will participate in an interactive online professional learning community with colleagues.	10 seats available
Shippensburg University	Nonprofit Management and Leadership	POLI 531.01			Asynchronous	This class provides an introduction to nonprofit management in the United States. The purpose of this course is to provide a foundation for understanding the unique functions and characteristics of nonprofit organizations. The course examines the legal, political, economic, and social environment in which nonprofit organizations operate. This course will introduce students to various aspects on nonprofit management, including the role of boards of directors, human resource management, grants administration, fundraising, and financial management.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Applied Child & Adolescent Development	PSYC 545.01			Asynchronous	Students in this course will gain an advanced understanding of how individuals grow and develop from infancy through adolescence. Students will investigate the major theoretical perspectives and research methods related to child and adolescent development. Topics covered in this course include physical development, cognitive development, socioemotional development, and contextual influences on child and adolescent development.	6 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Applied Child & Adolescent Development	PSYC 545.02			Asynchronous	Students in this course will gain an advanced understanding of how individuals grow and develop from infancy through adolescence. Students will investigate the major theoretical perspectives and research methods related to child and adolescent development. Topics covered in this course include physical development, cognitive development, socioemotional development, and contextual influences on child and adolescent development.	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9

University	Course Name	Course Number	Class Day(s)	Class Time	Class Modality (Synchronous or Asynchronous)	Course Description	Number of seats available, Prerequisites, or other notes
Shippensburg University	Information Systems Project Management	INFS 515.01			Asynchronous	Introduces the student to the principles and practices necessary to be an effective information systems team member or project manager. Covers project scope, time, costs, quality, and human resource management techniques as applied to the kinds of project management problems and issues unique to the IS environment. The student will obtain hands-on experience using MS Project as well as other types of project management software. Specific course emphasis will focus on the techniques of project management, leadership, teamwork, and project risk management. Case work will be a major part of this course.	12 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Warehousing and Distribution Management	SCMG 590.01			Asynchronous	Considers the theory and best practices for designing, operating, and managing material handling systems as they relate to warehousing. This course discusses warehouse location, design, and work force issues with regard to warehousing operations. It also considers warehousing strategies that minimizes supply chain inefficiencies and allows product accumulation, consolidation, and customization. Addresses a variety of principles and systems needed to create and manage world-class warehousing.	11 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	The College Student and the College Environment	COUN 565.01			Asynchronous	Examines the impact of the college environment on both traditional and nontraditional students and provides in-depth understanding of the characteristics, attitudes, and developmental needs of those students. It also suggests methodology for identifying needs and assessing environmental characteristics. Prerequisite(s): COUN 560	5 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Quantitative Analysis	CRJU 610.01			Asynchronous	Examines the relationship and application of statistical techniques to theory building, concept construction, computer analysis of quantitative data applied to criminal justice, the logic of data analysis, and fundamentals of statistical procedures commonly used in criminological research. Students also learn to critique and conduct empirical research. Prerequisite(s): CRJU 600	14 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9
Shippensburg University	Seminar in Policy Analysis	CRJU 590.01			Asynchronous	Introduces, examines, and provides students the skills with which to analyze criminal justice policies. This course emphasizes a conceptual approach to studying the creation, implementation, and evaluation of justice policies. The focus is on the steps involved in the evaluation of criminal justice policies; it will also address the existence of policies and their relevance to the success of the justice system (acknowledging the operations of each justice component - law enforcement, courts, and corrections).	9 seats available; Starts March 17 and ends May 9